R. SNYDER INTERESTED IN MOVEMENT IN PONTOTOC COUNTY.

Petersburg, Ind., April 26, 1912 Editor Ada Weekly News, Ada, Okla. Dear Sir:-I note with much interst through the columns of your paer that your citizens are still awake in behalf of the good roads movement and that they are progressing rapidly with their plans and arrangements to secure the general feeling of the taxpayers by circulating petitions among the voters in the socalled first district in your county.

There is no question about it but what good roads are worth ten times their cost to any agricultural comnunity, in every section of the counry where they have been constructd the taxpayers are only too glad o pay the extra tax or assessment, and would not do without them, as the tax is but little compared to the benefit derived from being blessed filed with the secretary of state withwith good highways so the farmers in the ten days allowed by law, and can reach their market the year the same was published in a newspa- BRENTS. round with their products.

For instance, soft lime store, shelly flag stone or sand stone formaion, or even a poor grade of gravel, soft and full of earth matter, all of which soon grinds into bug dust and is carried here and there by the wheels of wagons and vehicles and deposited elsewhere leaving the road full of ruts and mud holes, also is plown off the road in time like sand or dust formations. However from what I have seen and examined much of your class of road building material in your county I am of the opinion you have an inexhaustible supply of the very best of road building material, in fact I know of none better, for I tested some of it and it stood the acid test most satisfactorily; has that crystal hardness, and will not wear away or slack to dust, which is the important feature. You have one citizen among you whom I am personally acquainted with, who like my self has had years of experience in road buildng, who will agree with me that all you have to guard is to see to it than he plans and specifications are gotten up along the line and on the principles of modern highways and when once built if preerly constructed will last for years to come with but little repair. That gentleman is Mr. Adam Beck, president of your cement plant. You are blessed with an abundance of good road material and all you have to do is to adopt a good method of road building and your roads will prove to be satisfactory and you will obtain good results for the money spent.

Very truly yours, H. R. SNYDER.

CHARTER WINS BY 140 VOTES

VOTERS APPROVE WORK OF FREE ROLDERS AND COMMISSION FORM.

The charter won out by a majority of 140, the figures standing 364 to 224. The favorable sentiment prevailed in every ward, the Second making an exceptionally fine showing of almost 4 to 1. Although they fought gamely to the last, the opponents of the charter realized early in the day that they were up against it and that it was only a question of how big the majority for the charter would be. The vigorous campaign of the previous week had served to rouse the interest of the people to an extent that a heavy vote was polled.

Following is the vote by wards: First-84 to 72. Second-84 to 28. Third-91 to 53.

KRUPP CENTENARY

Berlin, April 26 .- Today marked the centennial anniversary of the birth of Alfred Krupp who, while he was not the actual founder of the great Krupp .10c and at the time of his death was Germany's greatest manufacturer. The father of Alfred Krupp was a small blacksmith at Essen. Alfred inherited the family iron forge, employing three men, and which had been in operation since 1810, and he are once set about enlarging the business but had no money or powerful friends, and his progress was slow. He decided to take advantage of it He had made important discoveries in the casting of large masses of Bessemer steel, which had been an insurmountable task previous to his time. The exhibit he sent to the Lon-child. don exposition fairly astonished the world, being a block weighing fortyfive German quintals. It at once established his reputation.

The making of heavy ordnance which has made the name of Krupp famous the world over, was at firs not a prominent part of the business. But soon general foundry work and the making of small arms began to take second place at Essen as heavy steel siege guns and armor plate demanded more and more attention. During the past half century Krupp ordnance has roared all over the world. The huge guns with which the Germans poured shells in to Paris during the siege were made at Essen. Some of the guns that fired at Dewey's squadron at Manila came from there. All European nations purchased guns there, France alone exception, for since the Franco-Prussian war the Krupps have refused to make guns for France.

The things of the world are ever rising and falling, and in perpetual change; and this change must be according to the will of God, as he has bestowed upon man neither the wisdom nor the power to enable him to check it. # L. J. D. YOUNG SHOOTS AND WOUNDS ANTHONY ROE

Tuesday afternoon about dark a difficulty occurred in the north part of town as a result of which Anthony Roe was shot by L. J. D. Young. One bullet entered Roe's back, lodging under the shoulder blade, another grazed his head near an eye, and another cut through two fingers. Young surrendered himself, and this morning was arraigned on a charge of assault with attempt to kill and released on a bond for $750.

The trouble is said to have begun in a dispute resulting in the refusal of Roe to sign a petition for Young's employment as teacher of the colored school. Both parties are negroes.

A Chicken With Four Legs.

This morning Mrs. L. A. Sanders showed the reporter a freak chicken which was hatched four days ago. Nature was unusually lavish in her gift o flegs to said chick, for he possesses four, three of which are on the left side. The right leg is perfectly developed, but two of the left ones are grown together and the other a trifle too short to be of much service. The chicken is apparently healhy and Mr. Sanders says eats heartily. Every indication points to its living to maturity.
